

Elections Support Contact List

In an emergency with imminent threat to safety, contact 911 or local law enforcement first.
As appropriate, you should also contact local and state organizations that can provide you with aid and information, as well as monitor and inform other nearby jurisdictions about the situation. For example, your State Elections Office or Emergency Management Agency.

Federal resources

---

Cybersecurity & Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA)

Support for response and recovery to cyber or physical security incidents or threats.
National information-sharing hub.

- ★ Find your regional CISA office: <https://www.cisa.gov/about/regions>
Each region has advisors focused specifically on helping offices within their region.

1-844-Say-CISA (729-2472)

Email: report@cisa.dhs.gov

Elections Infrastructure Information Sharing and Analysis Center (EI-ISAC)

Analysis and information-sharing for cybersecurity incidents. 24 x 7 x 365 availability.

- ★ 866-787-4722

Email: soc@cisecurity.org

EI-ISAC has a free membership program with additional services available.
Join by contacting: elections@cisecurity.org

Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) - Election Crimes

Investigation of cyber and physical security threats, especially threats or acts of violence against election workers

- ★ Contact the Election Crimes Coordinator at your local FBI office. To find your local FBI office, visit www.fbi.gov/contact-us/field-offices.

1-800-CALL-FBI (225-5324), select Prompt 1, then Prompt 3

You can also submit information to tips.fbi.gov

US Postal Service (USPS) and Postal Inspection Service (USPIS)

Support for issues with mail ballots or other election mail and investigation of mail crimes.

877-876-2455 (USPIS – mail crimes)

- ★ Find the phone number and email address of your area's Manager of Customer Relations here: <https://about.usps.com/what/government-services/election-mail/pdf/managers-of-customer-relations.pdf>

Non-governmental resources

---

The following resources are from non-governmental entities and may not be available (or not available for free) in all jurisdictions. Check with your attorney to assess what resources are permissible to use in your jurisdiction.

Election Official Legal Defense Network

Pro bono legal and communications support

★ 877-313-5210

Email: help@eoldn.org

The Elections Group

Communications and general election support

★ <https://electionsgroup.com/commsdesk>

Email: support@electionsgroup.com

Public Rights Project

Legal assistance for local election offices and officials, including training, litigation support, and amicus brief filings

★ 510-738-6788

Email: elections@publicrightsproject.org

U.S. Digital Response

On-call technologists and engineers to help with all your digital needs or emergencies.

★ 425-241-8723 (Lindsey Wilson)

Email: intake@usdigitalresponse.org